Testimonials

Sitting under Grace Fox's teaching has been life changing for me. Her approach to Biblical principles is solid, understandable and applicable. She writes and speaks with authority and compassion. Because of her transparency you experience an immediate connection. She is the real deal.

- Vicki Heath - former National Director, First Place for Health

Our recent "Women's Dessert Night" with Grace Fox was a wonderful encouragement to all who attended our sold-out event. Grace brought a message of hope and love that conveyed Scriptural truth and content, enhanced by personal stories of God's movement in her life. She is truly relatable to women at all ages and stages of life and her passion to serve God wherever He calls, is very evident.

- Pat Zimmerman - Women's Ministry Director, First Alliance Church, Calgary, AB

Grace Fox can address an audience of hundreds yet make you feel as though she's having a conversation just with you. She handles tough topics with scriptural truth and humor, and inspires women to believe that with God all things are possible.

- Margaret Gibb - Founder and Director, Women Together
